

Welcome to Quantum Connect – recruitment consultancy partners.

Looking to start a recruitment consultancy of your own, but aren't sure where to start? Quantum Connect is the answer! Find out more about our new service here.

Many of us dream of starting our own business, but it's not as simple as 1. make a business, 2. profit; there's all sorts of hoops to jump through, pitfalls to avoid and decisions to make. If handled incorrectly, it can mean an untimely end for your recruitment consultancy start up.

At Quantum, we work with promising, unique recruitment consultancies run by talented people. Have you ever considered going it alone, but aren't sure where to start? Perhaps you're looking for a better work/life balance? It can be nerve-racking to take the leap into the unknown, that's why we decided to launch Quantum Connect, our recruitment consultancy network that's designed to give startups access to recruitment business funding and industry-leading support, all while allowing our partners to retain 65-75% of their billings! It's everything you need to launch a thriving consultancy in one neat package.

What is Quantum Connect?

Connect is a part of the Quantum Group. We're passing on over 20 years' experience to budding professionals who dream of setting up a recruitment consultancy of their own. It's important to us that our partners retain their full autonomy, it's their business after all. Connect was created to provide likeminded professionals with the funds and the support they need to build a successful consultancy.

How does it work?

Here's the bit you're here for, the juicy details!

We offer a six-month interest-free loan to projects that we see potential in. While the money's useful to cover your initial costs (and risks), our partners also benefit from a direct line to our professional team of advisors and industry experts.

Our dedicated team's there whenever you need them. We'll never tell you what to do, but we'll answer any questions you might have and will advise on the best path to success. The whole reason for Connect to exist is to allow recruitment entrepreneurs the opportunity to build their recruitment consultancy in a way that suits them.

And the best part? Our partners get to keep 65-75% of their billings – they've done all the hard work, after all!

Who do we work with?

If you've ever wondered how to start a recruitment consultancy, or if you've got the drive and skillset to be a self employed recruitment consultant, then Quantum Connect could be the perfect fit for you. We partner with experienced professionals all over the world, who use our established brand and experience to catapult their business into success.

Why Quantum Connect?

We're a truly passionate team of individuals who bring years of varied experience into one place. Our process takes away the need for upfront investment, leaving you with huge potential to become a thriving recruitment business.

We value freedom and flexibility above all else – we'll give you the tools, resources and people, and you do the rest, it's that simple!
