

LOWER RISK, HIRE
REWARD.

51 Station Rd
Knowle, Solihull
B93 0HN

+44 1564 774 433
hello@quantum-connected.com
www.quantum-connected.com

Your business, fully supported.

Driven and ambitious with an eye for opportunity? Then our expert recruitment network is your natural habitat. Join Quantum Connect to receive the backing you need to build your own thriving recruitment business.

Lower risk, hire reward – that's our mantra. We provide all of the good stuff associated with working for yourself, with none of the associated risks. Our partners make flexible use of our established brand to catapult their business' success. We'll help you in every way we can and, crucially, you get to keep 65-75% of your billings, all while retaining your own independence; we're all about giving you the choices you need to make things work best for you.

Our process is all about growth, flexibility, simplicity and comfort – we're just as ambitious as you, so if you decide you're ready for more, we'll support you every step of the way! By doing this, we take a genuine interest in every one of our partners' businesses; it's important to us that we're just as invested and passionate as you. That's why we've cut out the jargon to keep everything clear and comfortable for our partners.

Our history, your future.

Quantum Connect is part of Quantum Group. Our business builds on 20 years' experience, working internationally in a wide variety of sectors. Using our know-how and venture capital, we help people like you to realise their potential in a protected environment – the perfect place to launch your own consultancy!

We'll never tell you what to do, we just supply the tools, resources and people that you need to make your business succeed. You make your own way, with your own client base on your own schedule, all while making more money while doing it – what's not to love?

We love what we do, that's why we strive to keep everything as simple and stress-free as possible.

Realise your business dreams.

It can be difficult to make the leap, your business is your baby, after all. We work to make this leap feel more like your next natural career step.

We provide the freedom for you to lay your business' foundations by taking on the initial risk. By offering a six-month interest-free loan, you've got the time you need to get the ball rolling. We always ensure that payments are divided into manageable instalments, allowing you to focus on growing a significant client base of your own, rather than worrying about money.

You're the star of the show.

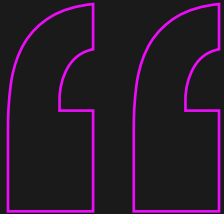

Consider us your backing dancers – we'll give you everything you need to make your show a success.

You'll be doing everything your own way, but you'll be far from alone – we'll be here if you ever need anything. And by anything, we mean it!

- Experienced leadership – Rely on our leadership team to help plan your success.
- Strategic excellence – Years of industry experience allow us to create a strategy that excels.
- Multilingual team – No matter where you're operating, we can help you communicate.
- Established brand – Use our brand as a springboard for your own.
- International reach - We have projects and partners around the world.
- Billing/invoicing – We can handle your billing/invoicing requirements.
- Communication & PR – We can advise on the right PR steps to improve your brand's perception.
- Uncomplicated business – We operate an uncomplicated business model to keep things running smoothly.
- Recruitment software – Our advanced recruitment software expedites an ordinarily complicated process.
- HR support – We'll support you with our in-house HR team.
- Mentoring – Our clients benefit from our bespoke business coaching.
- Business development support – Our resources are at your fingertips, ready to help build your business up.
- Total flexibility - By running your own business you can take control over the hours you work, establishing a better work/life balance.
- Complete freedom - We'll never interfere with your consultancy; your business, your decisions.

Our clients earn substantially more for their hard work, all while gaining access to a broad range of resources, from talent databases through to business planning support, we've got you covered.

Let's get started.

Our flexible partnership with Quantum Connect feels completely natural – we appreciate their person-to-person approach; it's good to know that they're taking a genuine interest in our business. They've kept all communications clear, making sure we're up to speed at every point, and have worked hard to build an open and honest relationship with US.

- Pablo Freire, – Quantum Connect partner

Working for yourself takes a certain set of skills and determination. We're looking for likeminded professionals who are ready for their next career step. We'd love to hear from experienced consultants who are ready to carve out their own success with the support of our respected brand.

Key role knowledge, skills and experience.

- You'll have exceptional relationship building skills with an entrepreneurial mindset, ready to deal with senior clients.
- You'll be ready to work in a collaborative, solutions-led and team-oriented environment.
- You'll have top-notch communication, facilitation and presentation skills.
- You'll have the aptitude to develop a strategic business development approach.

We prefer working with applicants who have sector or functional experience in one or more of our chosen markets:

Aerospace and rail, automotive, defence, industrial, infrastructure, packaging, renewable energy and technology.

If you think your unique skillset and ambition are perfect for a partnership with Quantum Connect, please get in touch with hello@quantum-connected.com

51 Station Rd
Knowle, Solihull
B93 0HN

+44 1564 774 433
hello@quantum-connected.com
www.quantum-connected.com